About Us

Whilst Bondi Road Doctors has only been at its current location since 2008, we have been caring for the community since 1946 when it opened a few doctors rooms built at the front of Dr Norman Michael's house, at 270 Bondi Road.

Since then, Bondi Road Doctors has grown and expanded whilst accumulating an extensive team of consulting practitioners that provide Bondi Junction and the surrounding local areas with top quality healthcare.

The practice is now currently owned and managed by 407 doctors, who also own and manage 2 other well established and highly regarded practices, East Sydney Doctors in Darlinghurst and Taylor Square Private Clinic.
